

Joan A. Dempsey Mentorship Award

INSA Achievement Awards

Instructions and Overview – Please Read Carefully!

The Joan A. Dempsey Mentorship Award recognizes a member of the intelligence, defense, and homeland security communities for their efforts to counsel junior colleagues and develop the future workforce.

ELIGIBILITY

Nominees must be working in government, military, industry or academia at the E-8/O-6/GS-15 level or below, or equivalent.

COMPLETING THE FORM

Please focus the nomination on work that the nominee has undertaken over the past three to five years.

It is critical that the selection committee be able to assess the individual contributions of the candidate being nominated – not the achievements of an office or mentoring program. Be sure to reference the following selection criteria below when completing the nomination form.

- Question One asks for details about the nominee’s office or project and his/her role in it. This information should provide context for the subsequent questions, which ask for specifics regarding the nominee’s actions, accomplishments, and impacts.
- Questions Two and Three – the most important parts of the nomination –Please be as specific as possible in describing the nominee’s individual contributions to mentoring professional peers and colleagues; to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in the workplace; and to enhancing the health of the organization as a whole and the welfare of the workforce and its community. NOTE: If the nominee holds a position whose principal focus is training and education, his/her involvement in such activities will not be considered “mentoring.”

While not required, if you would like to provide supplemental information (e.g., an endorsement from a mentor or a former supervisor), please limit to a single one-page document.

Selection Criteria: All nominees will be reviewed by the INSA Achievement Awards Committee using the following criteria. Nominations do not need to address every criterion listed below.

Hands-On Mentorship: Experience sharing skills, expertise, and constructive feedback through ongoing formal and/or informal mentoring relationships with peers and junior colleagues in the workplace. A clear personal interest in coaching peers and junior colleagues in the defense, intelligence, and homeland security communities and taking an interest in their professional success. Developing peers’ and junior colleagues’ ability to lead and to function effectively as part of a team.

Leadership: Experience leading formal and/or informal mentorship structures in the workplace that develop the skills, capabilities, and leadership potential of peers and junior colleagues in the defense, intelligence, and homeland security communities.

Inspiration: Ability to motivate peers and junior colleagues to develop skills and exceed expectations through one’s example and by acting as a positive role model.

Values: A commitment to promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in the workplace and to fostering innovation, collaboration, resourcefulness, and resilience among peers and junior colleagues.
